

Name of Applicant	Project Title	Description of Contract
Ballyhoura Development Ltd.	"Home Composting and Wildlife Gardening Workshops" and "A Practical Approach to Waste Minimisation Workshops" in the North Cork area.	Delivery of a series of workshops
Bandon Family Support Group Ltd.	Family Centre Community Garden/Allotments	To establish allotments on community green area and to provide training & fun opportunities in gardening activities as well as to provide sustainable food sources.
Belmont Court Residents Association	Belmont Court Community Garden	To establish a self-managed community garden with organic food production, recycling and sustainable use of resources.
Belvelly-Lower Residents Assoc.	Community Coastal Garden Initiative	To establish a coastal community garden scheme.
Cobh (Great Island) Community Centre Ltd.	Environmental Awareness Raising Campaign	To make the Community Centre more environmentally friendly and making the users of the centre aware of environmental issues.
Colaiste Muire	Community Awareness Initiative	Awareness project to highlight pollution and soiling of community amenities. It aims to teach communities to care for their environment.
Coomhola Salmon Trust Ltd.	"Streamscapes Advanced - Engaging Secondary Schools in Local Environmental Studies"	To provide practical, local application of c.v. based courses from second level syllabus, enabling students to acquire an appreciation of local ecology.
Cork Environmental Forum	Local Agenda/ Action 21 Programme for Cork	To foster, promote and support individual and community based responsible citizenship based upon actions towards local sustainable development.
Donal O'Leary	Promotion of Food Waste Composting and Environmental Awareness in Mid Cork Schools	To engage with schools encouraging them to develop on-site composting, providing expertise to support them and promoting environmental awareness.
Environmental Education Unit, An Taisce	Shore Detectives	To engage primary school children with their local coastal environment and to enhance their appreciation and awareness of the coastal habitat through developing a series of workshops.

Name of Applicant	Project Title	Description of Contract
Eoin O'Callaghan	Community Composter for Carrigaline Allotments	To provide a large pressure treated compost bin to serve the needs of Carrigaline Allotments to reduce waste at landfill and educate the community about the benefits of composting.
Green Mile Committee, CBS Secondary School	The Green Mile	To encourage the students and working people of Charleville to walk and cycle to school/work instead of using a car.
Irish Natural Forestry Foundation	Enhance the Educational Opportunities on offer at the Sustainable Forestry Education Centre, Manch Estate, Ballineen, Co. Cork.	To promote sustainable forestry and river management practices and to foster a greater appreciation and understanding of local natural resources.
Irish Peatland Conservation Council	Composting and Wildlife Gardening Workshops	To promote home composting and to raise awareness of the detrimental impacts of moss peat extraction on fragile peatland ecosystems.
Local Food Group of Sustainable Clonakilty	Local Food Initiative	To encourage and promote the creation/extension of community gardens as an educational resource to promote the importance and value of local organic food production and offer training courses for beginners to support and encourage food growing in back garden and allotments.
Lorraine Power, Billy Flynn, Flynn-Furney Environmental Consultants	Environmental Awareness Community Workshop Programme	To provide individuals in a selected local community with the relevant knowledge and confidence to implement best environmental practice in the areas of waste management, home composting, water conservation, biodiversity and combating climate change.
Mallow Community Organic Growers	Organic Garden Allotment Project	Provision of allotments and educational projects working towards sustainable healthy food.
Midleton College	Sustainable Living Courses for Adults and Teenagers	To develop a series of workshops and courses for adults and teenagers introducing some new technologies and honouring some traditional ones.

Name of Applicant	Project Title	Description of Contract
Midleton Transition Group	Food Waste Clinic at Midleton Food & Drink Festival	Hosting free demonstrations of various ways of eliminating, reducing and composting domestic food waste at Midleton Food and Drink Festival.
Midleton Transition Group	Sustainable East Cork - Web Directory and Map	To map organisations, businesses and food producers whose objective is the promotion of sustainability, carbon reduction and local food production.
Nano Nagle Centre	Teaching about Global Action Plan Programme	To make people aware of the many possibilities that exist of changing to sustainable forms of energy for our homes, to sustainable practices in building, to sustainable practices in dealing with waste.
Shanagarry Community Association	Outdoor Classroom and Park and Beach benches	To create outdoor space where children will enjoy learning about our environment, biodiversity, climate change, etc.
Sherkin Island Development Society Ltd.	Sherkin Island Waste Management Scheme	To reduce the amount of waste being created on the island and to prevent unnecessary transport of waste to the mainland.
Sustain West Cork	Skibbereen Community Orchard	To promote local food production, awareness of sustainability, to
Sustain West Cork	Textiles 2010 - A Pilot Awareness Raising Campaign about Textile Re-Use and Recycling	To reduce the amount of waste going to landfill, to reduce carbon emissions through reduction of fossil fuels use, to promote awareness of sustainability.
Teddy Cook	Creating Space for Nature to Function through Community Environment Education	To raise ecological consciousness and to promote environmental democracy at individual and community level.
Transition Town Kinsale	Kinsale Community Garden	To share and teach skills of growing food, encourage the spirit of co-operation and community, to make productive use of wasteland and to promote a more sustainable lifestyle.
Transition Town Kinsale	Education for Sustainability	To raise awareness of environmental issues and teach practical skills to school children.

Name of Applicant	Project Title	Description of Contract
Transition Town Kinsale	Community Food Growing: Focus on Fruit & Nut Tree Planting	To extend fruit and nut tree planting in residential green spaces.
Whitegate Mxd NS	Development of Community Garden and Biodiversity Area in Whitegate Mxd NS	To develop awareness of sustainable horticulture and to nurture habitats for bird and bat life in the local community.
Youghal Transition	Growing Youghal's Capacity for Change	To educate the community about peak oil and climate change, to promote sustainability focussing on food waste and energy.