6. Chun na Ruin so leanas ón gComhairleoir a mheas:/To consider the following Notices of Motion in the name of:

Cllr. Seamus McGrath

- 1. "To request that Glen Road, Ballygarvan, be included on the Resurfacing Programme for 2024. "
- 2. "To request additional traffic calming measures for Carrigmahon Hill, Monkstown "
- 3. "That the Council examine options for the provision of a multi purpose Sports Complex for Carrigaline."

Cllr. Audrey Buckley

- 1. "As we as an MD agreed on a Beach Wheelchair over a year and a half ago, for Fountainstown Beach. Disability users would like to have this in place for the summer months. With Beach Lifeguards located at the beach front in Fountainstown, this will work really well with the possibility of it being accessed from the lifeguard hut and being stored at night inside the lifeguard hut.”

2. “Following up from my previous motions ,can we have an update on the raised table on the R612 at Barnes lane.
3. “Crosshaven Pier - The public toilets need to be repainted and can we please get a sign directing the public to the toilets up on the footpath.”

Cllr. Marcia D’Alton

1. “That Cork County Council would explain the future implications/arrangements for management of the public spaces recently acquired by Irish Water for access and control of infrastructure associated with the Lower Harbour Main Drainage project.”
2. “That Cork County Council would assist with filling of the potholes in the road surface at Warrenscourt, Ringaskiddy.”
3. “That when advertising a temporary road closure, Cork County Council would aim to achieve more than the absolute minimum prescribed public consultation period of three days.”

Cllr. Ben Dalton O’Sullivan

1. “To write to the ESB to ask them to connect the new street lights on the Five Mile to Ballinabearna footpath.”
2. “That Carrigaline Municipal District would write to Failte Ireland to request a briefing on the new Cork Harbour Tourism Plan recently announced.”
3. “That the small piece of road between the Shop and Kirbys Korner in Ballinhassig be added to a future “Patches contract”, there is a small section here which has recurring pot holes.”

Cllr. Jack White

1. “That this MD ask Cork County Council to pursue the development of a public swimming pool in Carrigaline. To serve the needs of the town and adjoining communities.”
2. “That this MD seek an update on Casual Trading Bye-Laws and understand how members of the public can have their say.”
3. “That this MD seek traffic calming measures on Camden Road, Crosshaven.”

Cllr. Una McCarthy

1. “Seeking permanent bollards to be erected on the footpath on Kilmoney Road Lower/R611, specifically beyond the traffic lights on the left-hand side heading west bound. Cars frequently park on this footpath and this causes an obstruction to traffic.”
2. “Requesting a traffic survey to be carried out on the L2230 Waterfall Road at Ballyleigh, with a view to implementing traffic calming measures. The frequency and speed of traffic on this road is of concern to residents.”
3. “That this MD would write to the NTA asking for the bus stop pole to be re-installed on the Forest Park stop on Upper Kilmoney Road.The pole has been missing for several weeks and bus drivers who are unfamiliar with the route are not stopping at this designated stop.”
