An appropriate official will assume responsibility for controlling the conferencing technology employed for remote access and attendance, and to administer the Member interaction, engagement and connections on the instruction of the Chairperson.

10. Members should allow sufficient time to establish a connection prior to the commencement of the meeting to allow themselves and the Meeting Administrator the opportunity to test the connection.

If a connection cannot be restored within a reasonable timeframe every effort should be made to allow the Member to vote by telephone call from the Meetings Administrator or designated person, and confirmed by speaking to the Chairperson, and the vote recorded accordingly.

Leaving a Remote Meeting

16. Members leaving the meeting should make every effort to inform the Chairperson by the appropriate means that they are exiting the meeting to ensure there is a Quorum remaining and so that it is not presumed to be a loss in connectivity.

19. Members of the media and public should give prior notice of joining virtually in accordance with agreed local arrangements. To manage numbers and attendance, the Meetings Administrator may consider utilising electronic invitations compatible with the platform in use.
