10. Councillor Cathal Rasmussen:

“That this Council give a full breakdown of the number of hours worked with each new high velocity patcher and the locations (each municipal district and by town if available) which each new machine was used over the last 12 months.”

[13/12/16]

11. Councillor Ger Keohane:

“That this Council write to the HSE and to the Minister for Health to invest money into the St Stephens Hospital, Sarsfield Court, Glanmire. This Hospital site sits on a 117 acre site, the main hospital building is underutilised many separate buildings scattered throughout this site are derelict. This hospital is used to treat mental health patients, children with learning difficulties and a teenage fostering unit. With proper investment and planning this site could cater for an A&E Department, a 24/7 suicide prevention unit, a homeless shelter, minor surgery etc.”

[Deferred from Council Meeting on 12/12/16]

12. Councillor Noel Collins:-

“That this Council request the Minister for the Environment and Local Government to investigate and remedy the plight of older separated men and women with marital and relationship problems, particularly in their quest for social housing and that consideration of such cases be considered under the Social Housing Leasing Scheme.”
