Cllr. D Forde

 1. "That a written report is furnished in relation to SE-R-06 local area plan for Ballincollig-Carrigaline includes reference to this site for "3 Ha of additional open space over and above what is normally required in housing areas. This open space should include a fully landscaped and usable public park". Who is

- responsible for putting in this public park? Have the County Planners a plan already made up for this public park and does it include playing pitches?"
2. "That the Municipal District unanimously supports the provision of playing pitches which are critically needed and overdue for the greater Douglas area."

Cllr. S McGrath

1. "To request that the Engineer examine the drainage issues and the need for footpaths at St. James' Cemetery, Chetwynd."
2. "That the footpaths at Shanbally from the Grotto to the Village be upgraded as part of the 2018 Programme."
3. "Given that the Owenabue car park will be resurfaced on 25th & 26th June, to ask the Engineer for an update in terms of the car park design and other proposals."

Cllr. M Murphy

1. "To ask Irish Water and a representative of the Roads and Transportation Directorate to come before Ballincollig/Carrigaline Municipal District to discuss the disruption to traffic in Passage West over the coming weeks due to works by Irish Water in the town."

Cllr. M D'Alton

1. "That a report would issue to the Municipal District Committee demonstrating the maintenance work undertaken in each of the cemeteries of the Municipal District, particularly during the growing season and to include in each case whether those works are undertaken by a cemetery caretaker, by the County Council road maintenance team or by contractor."
2. "That the Centre Block in Passage West and the roads leading to and from it would be re-examined with a view to identifying locations where controlled and uncontrolled facilities might be installed as appropriate to provide improved ease and safety of crossing for pedestrians."
3. "That proper management of pontoons and other Council-owned berthing facilities would benefit from bye-laws and that this Municipal District would recommend same to full Council."

Cllr. E Jeffers

1. "That this Municipal District would explore to introduce free public WiFi spots within this Municipal District in specific areas, on agreement by Councillors."
2. "That this Municipal District be given a written report on any works the Local Areas Offices have carried out on behalf of TII and works that should have been carried out by TII, if any. The report should include a general nature of works, cost and reimbursement from TII."
