FOGRAÍ RÚN

14. CLLR. BEN DALTON O'SULLIVAN, CLLR. MARY LINEHAN FOLEY & CLLR. DANNY COLLINS:

"In light of the recent findings of the Independent AIRO report commissioned for Cork County Council. We are formally proposing that this council would retain the 20% Local Property Tax equalisation fund which is paid to central government every year in lieu of the €750 million euro required to bring our county roads up to an acceptable standard, and the years in which County Cork has not been receiving our fair share of funding under National government funding schemes.

We are requesting a delegation to meet the Taoiseach and Senior Ministers with this proposal at the earliest convenience, in conjunction with the already planned meeting with the Taoiseach and Senior Ministers to discuss the recent report."

[27/05/2021]

15. CLLR GERARD MURPHY:

"That a report be made available on the Policy Proposal by the Housing SPC that the Council discontinue building one-bedroom houses and explain if the Department of Housing Regulations are preventing this policy being implemented. Extract from Report on Age Friendly Homes: "as result of recent survey and Paper by Dr Emer Coveney suggested in one small section that the assessment indicated that 93% of those who responded want flexibility to invite a friend, a carer including grandchildren to stay occasionally, for this reason homes should incorporate a second bedroom or at least some additional space such as box room or shared guest facility.”

[27/05/2021]

16. CLLR. IAN DOYLE:

“That Cork County Council would seek from Irish Water their definitive projects in line with our Draft County Development Plan as regards capital projects and remedial works associated to Cork County”.

[03/06/2021]

17. CLLR. SHEILA O’CALLAGHAN:

“In light of the increased number of Greenways, cycle and pathways throughout the County, that Cork County Council would promote a consistent policy on “user guidelines” to ensure safe and enjoyable usage for all.”

[04/06/2021]

18. CLLR. SEAMUS MCGRATH & CLLR. AUDREY BUCKLEY:

“To request that Cork County Council prepare a specific Litter Enforcement response to the increase in outdoor activities this Summer, to include a multi agency approach and enforcement activity outside of normal business hours. ”

[04/06/2021]

19. CLLR. DEIRDRE KELLY:

“That this Council would contact the Minister for Agriculture Food and the Marine in relation to the issuing of Forestry Licences.”
