[h] NOTICES OF MOTION
FOGRAÍ RÚN

7. CLLR. LIAM MADDEN

“Following a recent Mallow/Kanturk Municipal District meeting and motion re grave registration and remuneration for registers I am looking for Councillors support to progress this matter for increased pay for same or a centralised computer system operated by Council. These records are of enormous importance going forward for our records.”

[03/05/2022]

8. CLLR. DANIELLE TWOMEY

“That this council on a pilot basis, would paint an established pedestrian crossing in rainbow colours in support of Pride week, with a focus on the three larger towns firstly, Mallow, Middleton, and Carrigaline. That a feasibility study be done on where these would be best placed within the three townlands previously mentioned. “

[09/05/2022]

9. CLLR. CATHAL RASMUSSEN

“That a report be given on how many applications for social housing were received from January 2021 to 31 December 2021 and how many have being received from Jan 2022 to end of April 2022.

Can a breakdown be given on the length of time it has taken for all these applications to be processed and can an explanation be given as to why it takes 12 to 16 weeks to process an application in general.

Can a breakdown be given on how many of the applications year ending 2021 were successful or not.

Also can a report be given on the length of time it has taken for those successful applicants in 2021 to receive their link to the CBL system.”

[10/05/2022]

10. CLLR. IAN DOYLE

“That Cork County Council would write to Minister Eamon Ryan TD to look at retrofit programme and include and grant aided solar panels as source of heat in all appropriate houses. This would ensure alternative source of heat in line with Green Agenda.”
