[h] NOTICES OF MOTION
FOGRAÍ RÚN

8. CLLR. GERARD MURPHY

“The Dept of Housing introduced new Regulations in connection with application for Social Housing :

The Dept are insisting that persons applying must produce and submit income details through a combination of the following

Employment;

1)Pay and Tax summary Year to Date 2.) Statement of Liability and Employment Details, These figures can only be obtained from Revenue online Services after opening a Myaccount.ie

Social Welfare Income;

A recent Statement from Dept of Social Protection detailing all welfare payments Received. These figures can only be obtained from www.mywelfare.ie again after the person has opened a welfare account. This process is difficult enough for people with basic knowledge of I.T. And impossible for many applicants. Many applicants may not be in position to request a relation or friend to complete this task for them. In any event the applicant may not wish to share this info with close associates.

I would hope that the Housing Dept would be in position to include in Application documentation a signed form from Applicant allowing the Council Official to obtain this info from Social Welfare or Revenue.

At least then the Applicants could be sure that the information remains confidential.”

9. CLLR. GOBNAIT MOYNIHAN

“That Cork County Council consider the provision of horse trails through the county.”
