6. NORTHERN COMMITTEE

The Northern Committee recommends that Cork County Council write to the Minister for Transport Eamonn Ryan TD outlining its disappointment with the allocation of only €100,000 for the Mallow Relief Road in 2023. Furthermore, it asks the Minister to explain the rationale and reasoning behind issuing a section 24 letter to TII as part of the Roads Allocations to Cork County for 2023 which effectively overruled TII's proposal to fund the Mallow Relief Road in the amount of €1.4m. The Mallow Relief Road is consistent with all relative objectives of national policy and its development is critical for the future development of Mallow Town and its environs.
