“That Cork County Council would write to the Minister for Agriculture, Food and Marine and the Minister of Housing, Local Government and Heritage seeking that all efforts would be made to ensure the proposed Nature Restoration Law does not compromise the productive farmland. In addition, we request that a full impact assessment is undertaken to quantify the extent of farmland that will be impacted and evaluate the potential economic and social impact on farm families and rural communities prior to agreement on any form of “Nature Restoration Law”.”

[12/06/2023]

11. CLLR. MARCIA DALTON

“That Cork County Council would provide a report summarising the achievements of the Marine Leisure Infrastructure Strategy 2010 – 2020 and updating in particular on:

1. Progress towards achieving each of the 52 identified actions
2. Progress towards branding and developing a Quality Mark for marketing of marine leisure in Cork County.”

[19/06/2023]

12. CLLR. KAREN COAKLEY

“I call upon this council to survey households in this County where there is a low uptake in household waste collection services. This should reduce illegal dumping and encourage people to dispose of waste in a safer and more environmentally friendly way.”
