Cllr. Seamus McGrath

- 1. "To request that the Area Engineer liaise with Bus Eireann and the NTA to provide inbound and outbound bus stops on the R612 near Carrigaline GAA Club."
- 2. "Objective CL-GR-02 in County Development Plan provides an ambitious plan for the development of a new Town Park on the western side of Carrigaline, including the provision of playing pitches. I request that our MD engage with the Planning Policy Unit to see how this Objective can be progressed."
- 3. "To request a Traffic Calming Scheme be devised for Ballinhassig Village similar to that provided for Ballygarvan."

Cllr. Ben Dalton O'Sullivan

1. "That the area engineer would consider the installation of an additional speed ramp near the GAA club in Ballygarvan. The installation of 2 no. speed ramps on the Western side of the village is having a very positive impact in terms of speed calming. If the proposal is acceptable, I'm asking that the area engineer would initiate a S.38 or similar process."
2. "To propose that Waterfall village be the recipient of the 2024 Village Enhancement scheme"

Cllr. Audrey Buckley

1. "We discussed recently, at one of our MD meetings areas in the Carrigaline MD as 'Poster Free Zones'. With the upcoming elections, can we collectively agree/disagree where these 'Poster Free Zones' should be in the Carrigaline MD."
2. "Residents on the Ballea road have asked that we clean the river on Ballea road of all the debris. Gathering of tree branches that get trapped under the bridge, causing backup/dam, causing more flooding."
3. "Minane Dam - recently again I have been contacted about the dam in Minane. More damage to the railings and lower blocks has happened since I reported this last year. Can we get a detailed report of the dam, get funding and look into using this great area as a walking amenity over to Ringabella from Fountainstown."

Cllr. Una McCarthy

1. "That Cork County Council roads department re-examine the pedestrian crossing in Ballinhassig Village and consider installing a raised crossing along with traffic ramps on either side of the crossing to reduce the speed of the traffic passing through the village."
2. "That Cork County Council would extend the existing footpath by approximately 250m from the roundabout on Ballea Road (R613) outside Carrigaline United Soccer Club as far as Abbey View housing estate."
3. "That the area office will prune back a portion of the overgrown shrubbery outside St. Mary's Terrace, in Rockenham, Passage West."

Cllr. Jack White

1. "That this MD call on the Roads Directorate to clarify if cameras can be added to traffic lights in the district, to monitor driver behaviour- especially the illegal breaking of red lights."
