240004	Ballinascarthy Railway Heritage Group	Ballinascarthy Railway Heritage Timeline: Ballinascarthy Railway Heritage Timeline is the project title. It will incorporate photographs, stories and factual information about times past when trains were the most used form of transport, communication and trade in rural areas like Ballinascarthy. Day trips in the summer months to Courtmacsherry were relished by families who got the train from Ballinascarthy to the beach. This timeline will depict our locality from the late 1800's up to the closure of the railway line in 1961 and will be an extremely valuable snapshot of how business, leisure, sport, family outings, agriculture and all walks of life conducted their daily routines on the trains. Rail was a vital mode of travel and we hope to promote the local knowledge, present the local photographs, enlighten our local youth and rekindle the love of the train. It will be of huge local interest, as well as tourists, national schools, bus tours and the general public using the N71 route to West Cork.	Ballinascarthy Village	Bandon/Kinsale	TBC	2900	2250

240005	Baltimore, Rath & The Islands Community Council, Ringfort Subcommittee	Event: Connections down through the Ages exemplified through our food crafts and culture: This will be an open air family friendly event held at the site of the Baltimore Ringfort to exemplify the 2024 heritage week theme of Connections Routes and Networks. Our keynote speaker will be by food historian Regina Sexton who has agreed to present on, Food in Early Medieval Times: the role of food in defining social connections and in supporting networks of influence. This will be followed by family friendly interactive sessions led by heritage skills and craft expert Sonia Caldwell to exemplify connections with the ringfort through use of native plants for shelter, food, craft and medicine. Local artisans in butter making and willow weaving will complement the event by demonstrating these ancient skills still in use today. In the event that bad weather prohibits an open-air event, we will revert to the Community Hall.	Baltimore Ringfort	West Cork	25/08/2024	2520	1750
240007	Bill Power	Publication: 'Vagabonds, Thieves, Rioters and Trouble Makers'. This book brings together twenty years of research by Bill Power, into poverty, crime and punishment in North East Cork, between 1758 and 1908. This book is about ordinary people forgotten by history and historians in general. It is ground-breaking research for County Cork and will benefit local heritage by raising awareness of how the less-well-off were treated in the past. Topics include crimes by and against women, and how they suffered as victims of sexual assault and murder, and the how and why perpetrators often 'got away' with these crimes. Chapters include stories from the Great Famine; life inside workhouses across North Cork; the incarceration of prisoners in local Bridewells; the role of priests and religion in societal attitudes to the poor. 'Vagabonds, Thieves, Rioters and Trouble Makers' is not about the great and powerful in society, but it is about the unfortunate people who lived lives of quiet desperation.	Mitchelstown	Fermoy	Heritage Week	3000	1500

240014	Cork Nature Network	Biodiversity is for Everyone - a selection of environmental documentaries and webinars Cork Nature Network aims to celebrate the rich natural heritage of the Rebel County by presenting a selection of environmental documentaries and webinars. Over the past two years, our organisation has recorded a series of educational videos designed to shine a spotlight on Cork's native flora and fauna including orchids and ladybirds. We also highlight positive action our community can take to protect the environment through our rewilding project video. It is our aim to develop and edit these videos so that we can make them freely available to the general public via our YouTube channel. The project will culminate in an event held during Heritage Week at the Kinsale Community Hall. Cork Nature Network invites you to join us for screenings of our documentaries and webinars that we hope will inform, educate, and enrich all in attendance. Cork's unique environment belongs to all of us, and it is our duty to respect and protect it.	Kinsale Community Hall	Z - Countywide remit	Heritage Week	3000	1500
240015	Cottageology	How old is my Cork cottage or farmhouse? - A Built Heritage Recording Project Traditionally-constructed houses are hard to date, yet people love to know their house history. Cottageology is a voluntary group of 19,000 people bringing back traditionally-constructed Irish buildings into habitation, and maintaining them. 563 of our members are in Cork. This project will record at least 20 Cork cottages and farmhouses including sketch plans, historical maps, oral history, documentary history and the opinions of two experienced archaeologists on any unusual features. House owners will work with local history societies, each other and a genealogist, who will carry out any work requiring visits to Dublin government offices. The project will pilot a basic "DIY" recording form, and use new measuring technology to	Tracton Arts and Community Centre	Carrigaline	17/08/2024	2900	2250

240016	Crann Centre	Education Boards and Signage at Ireland's first fully accessible Conservation Area: Aligned to the 3 objective's set out in the National Heritage Plan for Ireland – Heritage Ireland 2030, this project will design and install environmentally and ascetically suitable signs to improve access and vital educational boards/signage for Conservation at Crann, the first fully accessible conservation area in Ireland. Conservation at Crann Irelands First Fully Accessible Conservation area is a vast 20 acre accessible site for families to roam natural woodland, wildflower fields and riversides at Monymusk, Kanturk, Co. Cork. It is a place where families can spend time together and learn about biodiversity in an accessible natural environment. Conservation at Crann is for use by children, adults and families living with neuro physical disabilities who are registered clients of Crann, their families and invited guests. To best support our clients to engage with Heritage and Biodiversity of this unique space, we will install a range of new signage and educational boards.	Crann, Monymuck, Kanturk	Kanturk/Mallow	First Busy Event May 12th	3000	2500
240018	Cumann na Daoine	The Bobby Bickerdike Exhibition Bobby Bickerdike was a local social history photographer & ‘The Bobby Bickerdike Exhibition’ includes a launch screening as part of our ongoing Local Heritage Plan. 45 prints are accompanied by an accessible slideshow of images & information. Local archivist Kieran McCarthy curates the exhibition & delivers a local history lecture during Heritage Week. This event gives public the opportunity to input into local history stories, which may be recorded at the event & published online. The event will also launch a community publication created by CnD Women’s Group providing personal stories of housing, education and other social issues in Youghal’s history. This proposal raises awareness of Youghal's local history,	Cumann na Daoine's Community Café, Youghal	East Cork	22/08/2024 (Daily screenings run until September 30th)	3000	1750

240022	Ellen Hutchins Festival CLG	Magnificent Moss: Workshops and Infographic A project combining sound science and creative design to engage the public with the significance, importance and beauty of mosses. The aim is to show how interconnected mosses are with our lives and to change attitudes towards mosses. The projected outcome is to persuade people to take small but significant actions to protect mosses. Suggested actions will be aimed at a range of audiences from individuals in their own gardens to organisations involved in managing public spaces. Outputs will include an eye-catching infographic outlining measures that can be taken to protect and conserve mosses in urban spaces; colourful 'festival' flags with a moss graphic that can be used at biodiversity events; moss-based design workshops to brainstorm ideas for the infographic and flags; collaboration with two Tidy Towns/local biodiversity groups to pilot the project; events at our annual Ellen Hutchins Festival e.g. moss identification workshop & moss walk for the public.	Bantry	West Cork	17th - 25th August 2024	3000	2000
240023	Friends of Cloyne Cathedral	Cloyne Cathedral Self Guided Tour and Historical Information Signage The project will install sixteen free-standing signs, situated around the grounds of Cloyne Cathedral, highlighting the historic value of the Cathedral for both visitors and the local community, encouraging self-guided tours around the Cathedral, to learn about its history. We believe the new signs will increase engagement with heritage activities around the Cathedral in the future, and stimulate more discussion about local heritage activities in the surrounding areas. The signage will also be showcased as part of an open day event in Cloyne Cathedral during Heritage Week 17th-25th August 2024, promoting the Cathedral as a heritage	Cloyne Cathedral, Cloyne	East Cork	Heritage Week	2851	2500

240025	Green Sod Ireland (Páirc 'nTobair) Rosscarbery	Biodiversity and the Community- workshop series at Páirc 'nTobair, Rosscarbery The aim of this project is the running of a series of educational workshops to promote biodiversity, heritage and promote social inclusion, public participation at Páirc 'nTobair. Also to improve signage in the Irish language around the park, integrating language and biodiversity. This project promotes Public Participation within Páirc 'n Tobair, promotes education in traditional crafts, arts, nature and promotes the inclusion of the Irish language. The workshops will be open to persons of all ages, all nationality's etc. This project will improve the connection between wild spaces and local community in a sustainable way and seeks to preserve traditional crafts that may others become obsolete.	Pairc n'Tobair Rosscarbery County Cork	West Cork	TBC	3000	1750
240028	Kathleen and May Film and Photography Museum Committee	Youghal Film and Photo Archive Museum It is proposed to establish the Youghal Film and Photo Archive Museum, dedicated to preserving and showcasing the rich history of Irish film and photography. The museum will proudly house the lifetime collections of two distinguished archivists and collectors, Andrew Kelly from Kilmacthomas in Co Waterford and Patrick McCool from Limerick. Andrew's extensive collection, along with Patrick's work spanning the 1920s to the 1960s, will provide a comprehensive overview of Ireland's visual history. Moreover, the museum will pay homage to the pioneering Horgan Bros of Youghal, early film and photography visionaries, comparable to the Lumière brothers in France. Visitors to the museum will have the opportunity to explore an array of artifacts, including magic lanterns from the 1880s, cinema projectors, glass slides, timber cameras, and other equipment that played a crucial role in capturing Ireland during the first half of the 20th century.	8 Church St, Youghal-Lands, P36HE44	East Cork	18/08/2024	3000	1500

240029	Kevin Collins	A Video Documentary series on the Castles of County Cork Cork alone has just under sixty castles standing grand over rivers, hidden away in forests and perched proudly on cliffs and coasts. There is no robust visual immersive documentaries available that offer the viewer a historical and cultural context for the castles. My application is for funding to create a six part documentary, with around 10 castles in each. Each instalment would be 20 - 30 minutes in length allowing for 2-3 minutes per castle. A voice over would deliver the context while the visuals would offer the stunning landscapes and castles within them. An appropriate orchestral score will accompany the visuals with a distinct motif for each castle within its setting. For example, the use of horns for castles near the sea to capture the essence of the wind and rugged landscape. This funding is primarily to cover the significant travel and time required to film such a catalogue of castles. It will also cover the time required to edit and score the six parts.	West Cork MD	West Cork	TBC	2000	1000
240031	Kinsale Cultural & Heritage Society	Kinsale 1601 Commemorative Reenactment: This would involve a group of approximately 15-20 military reenactors displaying weapons, uniforms, drilling and marching from the Nine Years War Era. The proposal is to obtain a road closure for Market Square, in front of Kinsale Museum, and have the reenactors situated there, interacting with the public and marching and drilling. the reenactors would be from two registered historical Reenactment groups - Tercio Irlanda based in Donegal, and Lord Edwards Own based in Monasterevin. The proposed date of the event is Saturday August 24th 2024 - to coincide with Heritage Week. the day would begin with a panel talk in Kinsale Library, by Paul O'Keeffe, Battlefield Archaeologist, and Professor Hiram Morgan of UCC. The reenactment would begin at 11am and continue until 4pm on the same day. Subject to appropriate permissions, the event would end with a short parade march of the reenactors, hopefully encompassing St. Multose Church.	Market Square, Kinsale	Bandon/Kinsale	24/08/2024	2000	1500

240036	Liscarroll National School (5th class)	The reprinting of a publication regarding heritage in Liscarroll 5th class applied in October to take part in Heritage Keepers Programme in connection with Burren Beo Trust. We were successful and took part in 5 zoom classes where we looked at 1) My place 2) Culture and the past 3) Biodiversity and Land Use 4) Enhancing our place 5) Planning for action After this we decided to compile a book to preserve local history for generations to come. We were granted funding of €350 to cover the cost of the bus for our two field trips and a further €500 for the printing of 125 copies of our book. The book is A4 in size, with 40 pages. We have since realised the demand for the book and we paid an extra €185 for an extra 50 copies. We would also like to print an extra 25 copies to have as a classroom resource for local history. A past pupil who is a transition year student also did the illustration for the front cover and I would love to be able to give her a token to show our thanks.	Liscarroll National School	Kanturk/Mallow	TBC	885	300

240038	Lusitania Museum/Old Head Signal Tower Heritage CLG	Interactive Exhibition of Ireland's Napoleonic Signal Towers: The project seeks to create an engaging and immersive experience for visitors by developing an interactive touch screen display in the museum showcasing 81 Napoleonic signal towers across Ireland, including 19 located in Cork. As the only restored signal tower in Ireland, at the Old Head Signal Tower we are in a unique position to promote this significant heritage. Through the interactive display, visitors will embark on a journey through time, exploring the strategic role of the signal towers in maritime communication and defence during the Napoleonic Wars. Each tower will be represented on the map with photos, historical information, and multimedia content. By highlighting Cork's significant contribution to Ireland's maritime defence network, the project promotes local heritage, tourism, and economic development in the county. It also fosters community engagement and pride by celebrating Cork's rich maritime history.	Old Head, Kinsale	Bandon/Kinsale	NO	3000	2500
240044	Saint George's Arts and Heritage Centre	Conference: 'In Our Hands - Nature in Crisis' A full-day conference about how communities reshape the future of our natural heritage and biodiversity, through individual and community-based actions. How can people who want to change their local environment and where they live begin to make those changes happen? Proactive ways for re-wilding and encouraging biodiversity where they live. The conference plans to have nationally known as well as local speakers, and incorporate mini-workshops and discussion groups. A follow-up to the main conference will take place during Heritage Week, which will involve visits to local sites with potential for biodiversity and re-wilding. These are all key issues for the natural heritage of the county and can be replicated throughout the county.	Saint George's Arts and Heritage Centre, Mitchelstown	Fermoy	TBC	3000	1500

240047	Saleen & District Residents Association	Conserving an historic stone wall at Saleen Creek 'The roadway along the Saleen Creek / Jamesbrook section of Cork Harbour is bordered by stone walls, dating from the 1800s. Sections of the walls have been damaged, due to natural weathering, tides and falling trees. These walls are in a distinctive style with the stones positioned on end, rather than on flat. Saleen & District wishes to conserve these walls using traditional methods. During Heritage Week, the Association will hold a community event to explain the significance of the walls and the conservation work, demonstrate the traditional stone wall construction method and materials used.	Saleen Creek /Jamesbrook section of Cork Harbour	East Cork	Event - Between Heritage Week	3000	2000

A new information sign will be erected at the site explaining the significance and history of the Stone Circle. The sign will be unveiled on Saturday August 17th at a public talk at the site during Heritage Week.	Gorteanish, Sheep's Head Way	West Cork	17/08/2024	3000	2000

240049	Sirius Arts Centre	Changing tides: The evolving history of the SIRIUS building: A Podcast Series Sirius Arts Centre, also known as SIRIUS, occupies and manages the old yacht club in Cobh, the former clubhouse of the Royal Cork Yacht Club. Our building is of architectural significance and has a rich historical and cultural legacy. It is the only building designed by the renowned British architect Anthony Salvin in Ireland and has played a crucial role in Cobh's townscape and social narratives. We want to commission the journalist Ellie O'Byrne to create a podcast series focusing on the building's origins, architectural evolution and uses from its foundation in the 1850s until today. The proposed interviewees are Peter Murray, former director and founder of SIRIUS; the artist Natasha Bourke, a filmmaker and descendent of the Smith Barry estate, who have historical connections to the building and Cobh; local historian Tom Spaulding, a specialist in histories of Cork County; and architect Alexander White, who was involved in the original, partial renovation of the building in the 1990s. This podcast series is made available on SIRIUS Podcasts, along with other podcast series focusing on the histories of Cobh that we have produced in the past, thus complementing existing online content and constituting a repository of materials about Cobh and the building. We also want to commission the local historian Tom Spaulding to deliver a lecture about the building during Heritage Week 2024. We wish to further disseminate this content online in two ways: 1) video recording of the lecture for uploading on our YouTube channel; 2) Instagram feature (four to eight posts) informed by the lecture posted on our Instagram account (different and in parallel to the event-specific marketing posts). This project contributes to a more comprehensive understanding of our building's heritage nature, turning it into an asset for public engagement of heritage in Cobh and the wider County Cork.	Cobh	Cobh	Heritage Week (Lecture)	3000	1500

240052	West Cork History Festival	West Cork History Festival The annual West Cork History Festival (9-11 August) is for everyone interested in history. Every year our programme covers a wide variety of topics and speakers exploring local, national and international dimensions of our fascinating history in a relaxed and informal atmosphere. This year our themes are Diaspora and Aftermaths and speakers include Professor Roy Foster, Professor Margaret Macmillan and writer Thomas Keneally. The Festival takes place at the beautiful Inish Beg near Baltimore. We will have excellent local food and drink available. As always, the main Festival will be complemented with a series of field trips to historic locations on land and at sea.	Inish Beg near Baltimore	West Cork	9th-11th August	3000	1250

240056	Wombat Media (Ciara Buckley)	Placenames and their Amazing Stories - a documentary that explores placenames in Castlehaven, West Cork. The placenames of a region can reveal a wealth of information about its heritage and culture. Castlehaven, in particular, has an incredibly rich and fascinating collection of placenames, each with its own unique story. Many of these stories derive from the ancient Gaelic dindsenchas tradition. Dindseanchas is sometimes described as the lore of places. One of the most interesting features of Castlehaven's placenames is their close relationship to the natural environment. Many of the names are derived from the local landscape, with streams, mountains, and inlets all providing inspiration. The placenames of Castlehaven are a treasure trove of information about the region's past, and the stories behind them are both fascinating and illuminating.
